

Disability 101 Training

The Disability 101 Training will provide an overall view of the disability program and resources for Reasonable Accommodation Coordinators, Human Resource Professionals, and Managers and Supervisors to utilize in recruitment, hiring, and reasonably accommodating individuals with disabilities.

The training includes a 26 minute video of the "Ten Commandments of Communicating with People with Disabilities" to better understand disability etiquette. Provides a brief overview of the laws and regulations governing People with Disabilities and the participants will receive an outline of how to hire a person with a disability utilizing Schedule A and the Workforce Recruitment Program. The training takes an in-depth look at what qualifies a person with disability and a step by step guideline to accommodating those individuals.

The Disability 101 Training encourages open communication between the participants and the facilitator to gain valuable information in order to meet the Department of Commerce's mission of hiring persons with disabilities and Veterans.
